

THE GIFT OF HIS ABUNDANT LIVING

John 10:10, “....My purpose is to give life in all its fullness”.

Would you characterize your life filled to overflowing? Would you say that you are living with abundance of joy? Abundance of peace? Abundance of tranquility? Do you find yourself anxious about each new day or do you live dreading one day after another? It was and is on the very heart of Jesus to give you a life filled with purpose, meaning, wonder and excitement. However, the sad reality is, so many attempt to find purpose and meaning apart from a deep intimate relationship with Jesus. It is the very nature of Jesus, when you look through Scripture to make life better for any person that has faith and confidence in Him.

To the blind man in John 9, Jesus altered the very course of his life of physical blindness to one where he could see and experience the joys and the wonders that God had created. Jesus has not changed in 2000 years. He loves to fill our lives to the brim with meaning, purpose, and wonder. Yet, He cannot do so, when we have no interest of a serious relationship with Him. In this season of Christmas, what is on your mind? Do you let Jesus come across your mind regularly, or do you allow yourself to be bombarded with all the cares that this world holds. When we allow ourselves to “think on Jesus” it is amazing how life alters.

Jesus desire for your life today is one of abundance. The abundance of joy, peace, contentment. The peace of knowing that you are in the hands of a Loving Father, that will move heaven and earth for you, if you believe. The same Jesus that provided abundance of healing and ministering thousands of years ago does not change. He craves for your life a life filled with “purpose”, “wonder”, and “His powerful presence”.
